INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
California Association of Food Banks
Oakland, California

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of California Association of Food Banks (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of California Association of Food Banks as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2015 and 2014

1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

California Association of Food Banks (the "Organization", CAFB) is a nonprofit organization located in Oakland, California. The Organization's mission is to provide a unified voice among food banks to maximize their ability to build a well-nourished California. For membership purposes, a food bank is a nonprofit organization, which is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code that is governed by a Board of Directors which represents the community it serves and, on a regular basis, solicits, receives, warehouses, and distributes donated food within a defined service area, principally to a wide range of nonprofit agencies that operate food assistance programs for low-income people.

The Organization as a whole survives on grants, service fees, member dues and management fees on contracts.

Program services

Farm to Family Program

The Farm to Family program plays a vital role in delivering fresh fruits and vegetables to people in need throughout California. Working with growers, packers and food banks in every part of the state, CAFB provides surplus and "cull" (e.g., misshapen or cosmetically blemished) fruits and vegetables to its 43 member food banks and other select partners. The program has been an overwhelming success, increasing its distribution of fresh produce delivered to 152 million pounds in 2015, while allowing low-income Californians to include healthful fresh foods in their diet. In 2015 this distribution was valued at approximately $82,000,000. Because CAFB acts as an intermediary agent on behalf of its member food banks, this valuation is not recognized as a contribution.

CalFresh Outreach

Working with the California Department of Social Services and through a statewide network of local food banks and nonprofit organizations, CAFB delivers statewide programs with a goal to reduce hunger and food insecurity in California by helping eligible people to enroll in CalFresh (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program).

Policy and Member Services Programs

CAFB provides a variety of services such as information and referral, technical assistance, a biannual conference, and member networking to help support food banks in operating strong organizations with high quality programming, and also acts as an advocate with a goal to reduce hunger in California.

1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Basis of presentation

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Net assets and changes therein are classified as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets - net assets not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.
- Temporarily restricted net assets - net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time. The Organization does not imply a time restriction on gifts of long lived assets.
- Permanently restricted net assets - net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Organization. As of December 31, 2015, the Organization had no permanently restricted net assets.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on assets and liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor restriction or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets. Temporarily restricted revenues received that meet the donor-imposed stipulation during the same fiscal period are recorded as temporarily restricted revenue and are released from restriction in the corresponding fiscal period.

Comparative financial information

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class or functional expense categories. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, from which the summarized information was derived.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Organization places its cash with high credit quality institutions. Periodically, such investments may be in excess of federally insured limits. The Organization has not experienced any losses in such accounts. For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts, grants and government contracts receivable

Accounts and grants receivable represent amounts due from member food banks, grantors and contractors. Although the Organization is on the allowance method, management has determined that an allowance for bad debts is not required. Accounts, grants and government contract receivables that are deemed uncollectible are charged to expense in the period collection efforts have been exhausted and the accounts or grants become worthless. The Organization does not charge interest on past due receivables.

1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost or estimated fair value for donated items. Equipment purchases over $2,500 are capitalized. The cost of repairs and maintenance which do not improve or extend the lives of the respective assets are expensed. Depreciation and amortization are computed on the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 3 to 7 years.

In-kind contributions

The CAFB Farm to Family program acts as intermediary agent for its food bank members, soliciting donations of produce for distribution to those food banks. Because CAFB acts as intermediary agent on behalf of its member food banks, these donations are not recognized as contributions. During the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, those donations totaled 151,753,829 and 135,808,238 pounds with a fair value totaling $81,947,068 and $86,917,272, respectively. The fair value is based on a Feeding America study that valued fresh fruits and vegetables at $.54 and $.64 per pound, respectively.

Income taxes

The Organization is a qualified organization exempt from federal and California income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and 23701(d) of the State of California Revenue and Taxation Code. As such, the Organization qualifies for the maximum charitable contribution deduction by donors.

The Organization has evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of December 31, 2015, the Organization does not have any significant uncertain tax positions for which a reserve would be necessary.

Functional expense allocation

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and in the statement of functional expenses. Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Expenses related to more than one function are charged to programs and supporting services on the basis of periodic time and expense studies. Management and general expenses include those expenses that are not directly identifiable with any other function but provide for the overall support and direction of the Organization.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of support, revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Uses of estimates include, but are not limited to, accounting for the allowance for doubtful contributions receivable, depreciation and the allocation of certain indirect costs.

3. Member Deposits

Member deposits represent funds received from member food banks that participate in the Farm to Family Program. Deposited funds are held by the California Association of Food Banks and serve as a bridge of working capital, addressing the timing difference between payment for the purchase of produce and receipt of invoiced balances from members.

4. Retirement Plan

The Organization sponsors a retirement plan, under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, which includes all employees. Employees are eligible to make elective deferrals immediately upon employment. Employees are eligible to receive employer contributions after completing one year of service with a minimum of 501 hours of service. During the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Organization made retirement contributions of $59,206 and $53,683 respectively.

OTHER AUDITOR'S REPORTS

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING
AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors
California Association of Food Banks
Oakland, California

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the California Association of Food Banks (the "Organization"), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated July 21, 2016.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Organization's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

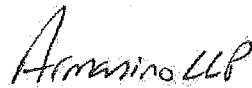

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Organization's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the California Association of Food Banks' internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of the Organization's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Organization's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of the Organization's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, California Association of Food Banks complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended December 31, 2015.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of the Organization is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered the Organization's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
